課程教學目標

The course is taught in English. It is offered to students who are interested in reading classic novels in English and learning more about themselves.

The teaching goals of the course are as follows:

- * Students will read a variety of authentic materials in English.
- * Students will compare the knowledge gained in class with what they have known about themselves, by participating in class activities, by completing the assignments, and by reading the materials given.
- * Students may become more sensitive to linguistic, cultural, or individual differences by participating in the class discussions and completing the assignments given.
- * Students will practice their English skills by responding to texts or questions raised in class.
- * Students will speak English to express their opinions and to exchange their ideas with their peers.
- * Students may build up rapport with their classmates by collaborating with others to accomplish the tasks assigned.

其他注意事項

* 歡迎欲增進閱讀及英語語文能力之學生選修本課程。

* 依通識中心修課規定，請預選修通識課程的學生，自行至選課系統選課，無人工加簽。

* Detailed information about the course will be announced on the 1st day of the class and posted on i-learning. Students should always refer to the announcements posted on i-learning and the information in the syllabus.

* Attendance: Each semester is 18-week long, including midterm and the final exam weeks. Students are considered late after the class starts at 10:10 and 11:10. If students are late twice, it will be considered as one absence.

- Note: When asking for a leave of absence, students must comply with the school's.

- Article 27 If the number of hours of absence is exceeds one-thirds of the total semester, the course grade is zero. (12 class periods)

- Article 28 If the number of hours of absence is exceeds one-ninths of the total semester, the course grade is zero. (4 class periods)

* Participation: Students are expected to participate in class activities and to ask questions in English voluntarily. Participation in class is "ACTIVE participation." Only sitting in class is not participation.

* Assignments: The assignments MUST be completed and uploaded to i-learning by the due date. They must be written in English. No extensions or makeups will be given. Students will receive zero points for late, incomplete, or wrong assignments. Grading criterion will be explained in class. Further information will be announced in class and posted on i-learning.

* Midterm and Final Exams: Two exams are given in class, during the regular class time. No makeups or extensions will be given. Further information will be given a week before the exam date.

* Presentations: Students are required to make a presentation by the due date. No extensions or makeups will be given. Students will receive zero points for late, incomplete, or wrong assignments. Further information will be announced in class and posted on i-learning.

* Note:

-- Always ensure that the records on i-learning are correct because they are used to calculate the final course grade.

-- No eating, drinking, or using cell phones, including text-messaging, will be allowed in class. Phubbing is prohibited in class.

-- Students must have a legal (copyrighted) copy of the novel used for the class. It is used for each class.

-- If any part of the course requirements is not completed by the school himself/herself, the student will receive zero points for the COURSE. 學生上課繳交之報告、作業 ... 等任何與課程相關之要求，若部分或全文有抄襲/剽竊等侵犯著作權之問題、或者是該作業 ... 等並非由學生本人完成，該生於本課程之學期總成績直接以零分計算，並依校規處理。

* Important! For the students whose situation are affected by the outbreak of COVID-19 epidemic, ...

-- All of the grading criteria and course requirements remain the same. 學生若因 COVID-19 疫情影響正常上課時，本課程評量及評分方式仍「依照課程原有之考核項目及評量標準、比例」。 。請務必注意課程相關規定及上課要求。

-- 線上教學方式：Students should login to the platforms required by the instructor (i-learning and Microsoft Teams) to attend the class during the regular class time. Students should complete/submit the assignments given by the instructor. No makeups will be given.
